

Dear Lecturer!

We would like to inform you that the IT Directorate has finished loading the Neptun courses into Microsoft Teams.

For login information, support for downloading and using the Teams client, and video tutorials, please visit <https://iig.pte.hu/teams>.

You can log in by clicking on the Teams link in the top left corner of the central site, <https://pte.hu> (or at the o365.teams.pte.hu login page) with your university account. You have to use your username in the username@tr.pte.hu format (e.g. EHAcode@tr.pte.hu, Neptuncode@tr.pte.hu, in some cases accountname@tr.pte.hu).

In case of an error, please try to restart the Teams client or try using the browser version first.

You can send your questions and problems in connection with Teams to teams@pte.hu. Please give a detailed explanation of the problem in your e-mail and be sure to attach a screenshot of the error. You can also get answers on the most frequently asked questions by calling UP's Microsoft Teams Support Line (extension 20007).

You can find Hungarian, English and German tutorials at the following links:

- Teams alkalmazás rövid ismertető
- Teams user's guide \(Basics\) in English
- Teams Benutzerhandbuch auf Deutsch

You can also view the videos of the lecturer's online Teams courses provided by the staff of the IT Directorate in IIG Teams Oktatás group in MS Teams under Rögzített előadásanyagok channel. The code for joining the group: g10xmn.

Best regards,
IT Directorate
